ABOUT JOHNSON PROPERTY GROUP

Johnson Property Group is one of the largest private developers of residential land in New South Wales. The Company controls approximately 7,000 lots in New South Wales all with Government approval.

Combining a passion for creating vibrant and sustainable master-planned communities with a vision for the future, Johnson Property Group is focused heavily on the community in all of its developments in New South Wales' growth corridors, including Lake Macquarie, Cessnock and Cooranbong. These areas have been identified as major regional centres in the Lower Hunter Regional Strategy.

In addition, the Group is currently developing Vermont, located on the Hawkesbury River, North-West of Sydney in Pitt Town.
